every movement & in the right direction & in every thing which helps the cause onward if it be but one step - Still I cannot but trust that deep interest in Xts labours which I may do - they do not seem to me to be directed to the loss of the Lord. So also with the Free Labour movement in this country & as to the Free Soil movement in Yours I cannot understand how any true Anti Slavery person can join it.

I have been writing, my dear friend, in the hurried & conversation, which I hope with indulgence for the extreme pain & interest in this communication but if it assure thee of my unaltered affection it will answer the end in view. Give my kindest love to Helen & the dear young ones & accept it largest tribute from my own affec. Please his course independant. I would here mark of Stanly, more dark in the House, his vote on the Sugar duties has given offence to many of our supposed Abolitionists - I perceive I am unable to understand the question & think it was right - but, I do think that the freedom given to the importation of slave grown sugar, holds out an additional inducement for the encouragement of the free labour produce of British India & the removal of the many hindrances to its growth.

Elihu Burritt is in high spirits at the result of the Brussels Congress & the relations with the subsequent meetings in this country have given us weight to rejoice in be with you in Concord. Good morning Christmas Greetings & shall long to take a peep at you. May this & every other Xmas hasten the day when every shackle shall be broken & the slave rejoice in his freedom. What stirring times we live in, I often repeat that my day was cast in so interesting a period of the world's history. What will be the end of all the turnings & over -turnings of the nations ~~is~~ is is hid from human foresight but no doubt God will overrule tho' the means resorted to must be condemned by all who believe in a religion of peace & love.

Tom will see Geo. Thompson's address to his Constituents of course how manly, straightforward & a little different phraseology — the headings to some of his letters as well as some expressions in the letters. I believe have the effect of hardening the hearts of many in error rather than opening them to the reception of the truth.

I heard of Mrs Chapman a few days ago from some friends who is now in Paris — It was very pleasant to think of one whom we had so longed to see being so near us without being able to gratify our ardent wish. Should life be spared to us, I hope this pleasure is in store for us at some future period. She will be much missed at this season especially when there is so much work to be done & which she has been accustomed to bear so large a share. Our thoughts with

GARRISON MSS.

kindly mentioned your indem-nity of touching the one of the Daguerreotypes of the Lunch table - If not requested for any one having a prior claim I shd be very grateful for it & should hope it might.
I have sent £3 thro' Lon. Inscd to London Phillips which I have asked him to pay to Thee for her Year's "Liberator" for Dr. Marden & myself. No paper keeps up its interest like the Liberator, at least do I think, tho' some of our very best thoughts would be startled at some of its contents.
The calm quiet investigation of Truth Salvages leaving out many of his & all our friends here of the humbler, Irish Thatch Deen Hall would adopt a busily engaged in the preparation of the linnnal box for Boston so that it has been a busy in-teresting time to be here - Your dear friends have been busy been to us daily & almost hourly have we talked of You & with delight have I listened to their narrations of the incidents of thy last visit to Edinburgh - & looked upon the scenes con-nected therewith.

I wrote thee a hasty reply to thy kind letter giving me the in-telligence which awakened such true feeling for thee & thy dear -est Helen of the loss of your darling child. I hope it teach -ed thee else I must have appeared negligent - than be abundantly satisfied. But they remember that a long time is required to effect a permanent cure & do not leave the U.S. until this is likely to be accomplished.

I have been staying upwards of three weeks with my dear friends the Wrights in Grey Street & to them who have partaken of their kindness & hospitality I owed much. I can truly say I have enjoyed my visit which I feel sorry to think is now nearly drawing to a close. The Anti Slavery bond is a close one & it is delightful to me to meet with those who sympathize in all my views on this question & with those views I can fully sympathize in return.
Dear Jane & Eliza have been

GARRISON MSS.

J Elizabeth Pease to W. L. Garrison.
40 141
To W. L. Garrison

5 Gray Street
Edinburgh
11 mo. 12, 1848

My beloved Friend

Often do I feel that my silence does myself great injustice, only that I am assured thou will not construe it into forgetfulness — No, dear friend never was thou more frequently or more affectionately remembered by me than thou hast been during the past year & incessible is the pleasure with which I have heard of the improvement in thy health. Sincerely do I wish hydropathy may do as much for thee as under the blessing of God it has done for me — then may the hearts of thy numerous friends

V14, P39